MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE WRITTEN DIRECT STATEMENT

REQUEST FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE

Due to the QV-19 epidemic I am asking your honors permission to file my written direct statement. My reason being that not only me but my fellow musicians found ourselves suddenly out of work. Which left me with no income.

I found myself in a survival situation which is the reason for missing the scheduled time (by two days). Seeing that the only participants is me Eugene Curry, and AARC, I believe if you allow me an extension of time (2 days) or less would not in my opinion be of harm to the other party. If given your approval I would file immediately after your ruling if granted. It would be filed by June 10-11. I already have my case done, I just need your honors to give me a chance to do so. Again I apologize to your honors for the unfortunate delay due to the virus. All the years as a musician we have never been in this position where all music and performing around the world just 'STOPPED! This has been the most depressing four month of my life. So for these reasons I'm asking for permission to file if approved.
