

The letter inside should clearly indicate that it is a request for special handling.

The request for special handling of a registration must be accompanied by a completed application, the required deposit copies, phonorecords, or identifying material, and the $200.00 fee plus the applicable filing fee. The request for special handling of a recordation of a document pertaining to copyright must be accompanied by a document meeting the requirements for recordation and the $200 fee plus recordation fees ($20 for a document listing no more than 1 title, plus $10 for each group of 10 or fewer additional titles). The fee may be charged to a deposit account established in the Copyright Office. If the deposit account contains insufficient funds to cover the total special handling fee, or if the remitter does not maintain a deposit account, the total special handling fee may be paid either in person at the Public Information Office in Washington, DC, or it may be remitted by mail. Such payment must be in cash, check, or money order made payable to the Register of Copyrights. Cash should not be sent by mail, however.

A request for special handling will be granted only in cases involving pending or prospective litigation, customs matters, or contract or publishing deadlines that necessitate the expedited issuance of a certificate. Special handling procedures may be applied to cases pending in the Copyright Office, provided the previously mentioned criteria are met.
