Eugene Curry FILING OF WRITTEN DIRECT STATEMENT AMENDED

First I would like to thank your Honors for allowing me to file my written direct statement at this time. Due to the changing of new laws and changes in the music industry at this moment, I had to amend my original version. My first observation was that there was no objection or response from AARC. After nothing but opposition for 25 years from them. Then I got a email from SoundExchange letting me know that as of July 31st 2021, the aarc will no longer exist. SoundExchange will be taking over the royalties they were claiming and collecting. So since finding this latest information, I'm requesting that I be granted the minimum I been asking for $1000.00 out of the distribution of the 2014 SRF Royalty Funds. Also if there is no claimants left to receive that's left of the 2%, that after the deduction of the $150.00 filing fee, that I be given the remainder of these funds too. I do have a question to your honors is Did the AARC know that SoundExchange was taking over doing these proceedings, Did they distribute the funds they were given? Is there bank statement s proving it? And was the CRB aware of these new changes?

So due to these changes I will submit the SoundExchange document as confirmation under USC 806(vii). So I don't see the need to waste your honors time with unnecessary volume of pages.

I thank you for your time and wisdom, and Its my opinion that if it wasn't for the CRB that the music industry fought to keep it from happening the changes that are occurring at this time for the CREATIVE Being'' to be finally compensated is because of you. I thank you!
