

COPYRIGHT ROYALTY BOARD JUDGES

The Library of Congress

In re

DISTRIBUTION OF CABLE ROYALTY Docket No. 20-0010-CD-(2019)

FUNDS

MOTION TO SHOW CAUSE OF EUGENE CURRY CLAIM

FOR PARTIAL DISTRIBUTION OF THE (2019) CABLE ROYALTY

FUNDS WHY IT SHOULD NOT BE DECLARED INVALID

In response to the order to show cause of my Eugene Curry, claim to show cause why my claim should not be invalidated and the answers why are the following. First my apologizes to your Honors for in complete of the proper filing, and apologizes to the other claimants of record.

Being that your Honors have agreed it was timely filed, my works are listed. So I am including with this motion, 1. BMI writer's statements documentation of recent retransmission by cable television systems, and licenses from them. I will also make sure the other claimant's get the same. Again thank you for bringing this to my attention.

Eugene Curry

4000 Gypsy Lane Philadelphia Pa. 19129

lambchopsmusic@voicenet.com 215-9604802

ORDER

On this day _____ it is ORDERED that individual claimant Eugene Curry that 20% of the 2019 Cable Fund is granted partial distribution of these royalties.

January 31, 2022.

SO ORDERED

Suzanne M. Barnett
Chief Copyright Royalty Judge