

5. Such Amazon Protected Material includes, but is not limited to, highly confidential internal business information that is proprietary, not available to the public, and commercially sensitive.

6. If this highly confidential internal business information were to become public, it would place Amazon at a commercial and competitive disadvantage, unfairly advantage other parties to the detriment of Amazon, and jeopardize its business interests.

7. In addition to the Amazon Protected Material, Amazon is bound under the Protective Order to treat as “Restricted” information designated “Confidential Information” by other participants in the proceedings. The Joint Submission contains information that the Copyright Owners have designated as “Confidential Information.” Amazon is treating that information as “Restricted” and redacting such information in accordance with the terms of the Protective Order. Amazon reserves all rights and arguments as to whether such information is, in fact, “Confidential Information.”

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I hereby declare under penalty of perjury that, to the best of my knowledge, information and belief, the foregoing is true and correct.
