MPA RESPONSE TO RESTRICTED ORDER FURTHER TO SECOND ORDER DIRECTING RECALCULATION OF ROYALTY ALLOCATIONS

As directed by the Copyright Royalty Judges (“Judges”) in their October 13, 2022 Restricted Order Further To Second Order Directing Recalculation Of Royalty Allocations (“October 13 Order”) and the October 14, 2022 Restricted Order and Addendum to the October 13 Order (“Addendum”), MPA-represented Program Suppliers (“MPA”) hereby notifies the Judges that it has reviewed the Licensing Section’s recalculations as set forth in the Addendum. MPA notes that the Licensing Section’s recalculations in the Addendum are dated as of April 30, 2022, which was approximately six months ago. MPA hereby notifies the Judges that it has no objection to the Licensing Section’s recalculations as set forth in the Addendum, subject to the Licensing Section updating their calculations to account for the growth of the royalty funds and interest that has accrued since April 30, 2022.

MPA respectfully requests that the Judges proceed to order a final distribution of royalties to MPA, Independent Producers Group (“IPG”) and the Settling Devotional Claimants (“SDC”) based on the Licensing Section’s recalculations, and requests that the Judges direct the Licensing Section to update their recalculations to reflect growth of the funds and interest that has accrued as of date of the final distribution as a part of that order.

Respectfully submitted,

MPA-REPRESENTED PROGRAM SUPPLIERS
