Re: Change of Address

Dear Madam Clerk and Counsel:

Received
NOV 14 2012
Copyright Royalty Board

Last summer Miller & Van Eaton, LLP, to which I was of counsel, was acquired by the California firm of Best Best & Krieger LLP, and its Washington Office was subsequently moved to 20th & Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W. At that time I moved my office to Maryland, as shown above.

It has now come to my attention that the USPS is not consistently forwarding my mail to the new BBK office. With specific reference to the webcasting proceedings before the Copyright Royalty Board, viz., Web II (on remand), Web III, and the pending rule to establish recordkeeping and reporting requirements for Internet transmission of digital recordings, appeals from which were filed in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit, it has become apparent that my notice of change in address given to appellate counsel for the parties has not invariably become effective as to the regulatory counsel for these parties.

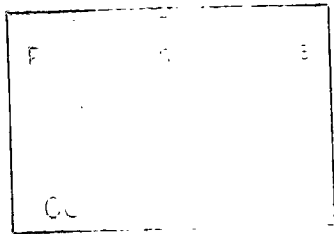

Please conform your records to the changes in mailing address, telephone number, and email address reflected in the letterhead above.

Very truly yours,

William Malone
