Docket No. 16-CRB-0009 CD (2014-17)

ORDER 42 REGARDING REDACTION OF INITIAL DETERMINATION

On September 6, 2023, the Copyright Royalty Judges (Judges) issued their Initial Determination of Royalty Allocation (Initial Determination) in the captioned proceeding. The Judges issued the Initial Determination as a restricted document, subject to the Protective Order dated February 17, 2022, in order to give the participants the opportunity to identify what they assert to constitute confidential material to be redacted from the public version.

The Judges hereby ORDER the participants to confer and present to the Judges a single version of the Initial Determination in which they identify what material, if any, they assert to be confidential, by highlighting it in a suitably visible color. Participants should designate the proposed confidential material narrowly, bearing in mind the Judges' concern for openness in these public proceedings, and the need for the public to understand the rationale behind the Judges' findings. After considering the participants' submission, the Judges shall make the final decision as to what material, if any, is confidential and therefore to be properly redacted from the public version.

To expedite final issuance of the determination, the Judges ORDER that participants file the proposed redactions in eCRB (using document type "Notice – other" and a clear document title) no later than September 22, 2023.

SO ORDERED.

Hon. David P. Shaw
Chief Copyright Royalty Judge
