Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man. II Corinthians 7:2 These of some of the reasons I am unable to email you the internet video at this time and I haven't given up. Each time I think one problem solved another one occurs like for example a government cell phone with no internet service, the notebook computer internet don't work out of the house or it's functioning poorly. Right now I believe Jesus is leading me to attend a certificate program and need to reserve money for my education. Thank Jesus for your patience.
